

Residential Warranty - Australia Luxury Vinyl & Hybrid Products

15 Years: Products with 0.3mm Wearlayer | 25 Years: Products with 0.55mm Wearlayer

While you should have years of enjoyment of your new investment with peace of mind, you cannot rely on quality products and warranties alone. It is extremely important to ensure that proper installation, cleaning and care is carried out and also that the temperature range within your home is well maintained; otherwise your Armstrong Flooring warranty might not apply (see conditions below). Vinyl and hybrid flooring should be protected from excessive heat, prolonged exposure to direct sunlight, dryness or moisture which may cause damage to your floor. Copies of the Armstrong Flooring Installation Instructions and Cleaning and Care Instructions are available at www.armstrongflooring.au

Australian Consumer Law Guarantees

Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure. What constitutes a major failure is set out in the Australian Consumer Law.

Armstrong Flooring residential warranties are in addition to any rights available under the Australian Consumer Law, which may exceed the rights under this warranty. The Armstrong Flooring warranties are conditional, subject to the conditions set out below.

Warranty

Manufacture Defect Warranty applies to the structure of the product. Armstrong Flooring™ warrants that the product is free from manufacturing defects.

Please note: Manufacturing defects include delamination, thickness variation, and dimensional stability defects. Dimensional stability related defects are defined as dimensional changes in the width and/or length of the product greater than the tolerances as defined in EN427, EN428, EN431 and EN434. Residual indentation is defined as indentation exceeding the tolerance as defined in ISO24343.

The specifications of the product is the benchmark on which to judge whether a product is within tolerance. Armstrong Flooring™ warrants the product's dimensions and structure will not alter outside of tolerances for the warranty period.

Performance Warranty applies to the function of the product.

Armstrong Flooring™ warrants that the product will be fit for normal residential purposes for the warranty period when it is correctly installed, cleaned and maintained as set out in the Armstrong Flooring™ Cleaning and Care Instructions for the relevant products.

These Armstrong Flooring™ products have enhanced wear layer features that improve the wearability of the floor. Armstrong Flooring™ warrants that the product for the warranty period will not wear through to the design layer under normal household use.

Please note: Everyday use of the floor may result in, but not limited to, scratches, dents, gloss level variations, change in appearance, change in slip resistance. These are not part of the warranty as this is normal life of a floor covering.

Who Is Covered?

This warranty is for the benefit of the original residential property owner for whom the flooring product is installed, or if the original property owner is a builder or developer, to the property owner of the residential property 12 months after the purchase of the floor. The warranty is not transferable.

What Will We Do?

If any of the covered events occur within the specified warranty period, we will at our cost either furnish comparable flooring (of our manufacture and of similar colour, pattern and quality), or repair of the defective area, at our option, but not including installation costs.

In the unlikely event that we are unable to correct the problem after a reasonable number of attempts, we will refund the portion of the purchase price for the section of failed flooring.

If your floor was professionally installed, we will also pay reasonable labour costs for the direct repairs or replacement within the first five years of the warranty period, or the length of the warranty period, whichever is less. This does not include labour involved in removal or replacement of cabinets and other fixtures.
